

Nonprofit and Voluntary Sector Governance & Management
A graduate level 7-day summer course at Carleton University
PADM 5423

June 4-12, 2009

School of Public Policy and Administration in collaboration with the Centre for Voluntary Sector Research and Development

Carleton University is offering an intensive, graduate level course on important governance and management issues facing nonprofit and voluntary organizations in Canada and globally. Linking theory to practice and policy, the course is taught in seven, one-day modules, each on a different topic.

Instructors:

Dr. Susan Phillips and Paula Speevak Sladowski will co-lead the summer seminar, with module instructors who are experienced faculty and community practitioners.

Module Topics:	Date:	Starts:	Ends:
Overview of the Non-profit and Voluntary Sector	Thursday June 4 th	1:30 pm	4:30 pm
Public Policy and Government Relations	Friday June 5 th	8:30 am	3:00 pm
Governance and Leadership	Monday June 8 th	8:30 am	4:30 pm
Program Development and Evaluation	Tuesday June 9 th	8:30 am	4:30 pm
Financing and Funding Practices	Wednesday June 10 th	8:30 am	1:00 pm
Networks, Partnerships and Collaboration	Thursday June 11 th	8:30 am	4:30 pm
Communications and Public Relations	Friday June 12 th	8:30 am	3:00 pm

Participants:

This course will appeal to a broad range of participants interested in the non-profit and voluntary sector including:

- Managers and practitioners in non-profit and voluntary organizations
- Members of Boards and Committees
- Policy-makers, funders, and regulators
- Consultants, researchers, and allied professionals
- Graduate students or those considering graduate studies

Registration Options:

- A. Current Carleton students register through the regular process (www.carletoncentral.ca)
- B. Special Students (for credit - <http://www.carleton.ca/registrar/specialstudent.htm>)
- C. Professional Development (no assignments or credit) $950 (including materials)
http://www.cvsrd.org/eng/sustainability-leadership/sl_training.html

For more information, please contact Paula Speevak Sladowski at 613-520-2600 ext. 1835 or paula_speevak-sladowski@carleton.ca