

Join us for a Panel Discussion and Reception

Community-University Engagement: Building Authentic and Reciprocal Relationships

Tuesday, May 26th

From 7:00 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.

Location: Metro Central YMCA-YWCA
National Capital Region
Georgian Room
180 Argyle Avenue, Ottawa ON

There is no cost to attend this event

What are the benefits and challenges of community-university relationships for students, community organizations, professors, and universities? Come hear about how Youth Services Bureau and the University of Ottawa identified the assets and needs of each institution that led to the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding between the two.

Panellists:

Alex Munter, Executive Director of Youth Services Bureau

Samantha Green and Peter Cleary, University of Ottawa Student Researchers

Ross Hastings, Supervising Professor, University of Ottawa

Co-hosted by Larry Gemmel, Canadian Alliance of Community Service Learning and Paula Speevak Sladowski, Carleton University

Jointly Sponsored by

Carleton University's Centre for Voluntary Sector Research and Development
The Canadian Alliance for Community Service Learning
University of Ottawa Experiential Learning Services
Community-Based Research Network of Ottawa

To register or for more information please visit:

http://www.cvsrd.org/eng/cue_registration.html or call 612 520 7444

Please note presentations will be in English however questions can be entertained in both official languages.